

Khopra (Danda) Trek Itinerary

Day 1: Arrival in Kathmandu

Upon arriving at Tribhuvan International Airport, you will be greeted by Adventure Club (P) LTD, staff members who will transfer you to your hotel. Adventure Club will host a cultural welcome dinner for you in the evening. You will spend the night in a hotel in Kathmandu.

Day 2: Kathmandu City Tour on World Heritage site

On this day, you will take a sightseeing tour of the Kathmandu Valley with a local guide. You will visit UNESCO World Heritage Sites including Pashupatinath, Swayambhunath, Boudhanath, and Patan Durbar Square, and learn about the city's rich history and its influence on the modern era. After the tour, you will prepare for the trek. You will spend the night in a hotel in Kathmandu.

Swayambhunath- Swayambhunath is a UNESCO World Heritage Site and a popular Buddhist temple in Kathmandu, Nepal, known for its stupa and panoramic views of the city.

Patan Durbar Square- Patan Durbar Square is a UNESCO World Heritage Site in Patan, Nepal, known for its beautiful architecture, temples, and palaces, as well as its rich cultural and historical significance.

Pashupatinath Temple- Pashupatinath Temple is a UNESCO World Heritage Site and a sacred Hindu temple located on the banks of the Bagmati River in Kathmandu, Nepal, dedicated to Lord Pashupatinath, the patron deity of Nepal.

Boudhanath Stupa- Boudhanath Stupa is a UNESCO World Heritage Site and a large Buddhist stupa in Kathmandu, Nepal, known for its white dome, prayer flags, and the surrounding areas of many Tibetan monasteries and shops.

Day 3: Drive to Pokhara from Kathmandu by Tourist Bus

On the 3rd day of your trek, you will take a tourist bus from Kathmandu to Pokhara, a scenic city located in the central region of Nepal. The journey takes around 6-7 hours and offers stunning views of the countryside and the Himalayan mountain range. Upon arriving in Pokhara, you will check into your hotel and rest for the night.

Day 4: Drive to Nayapul and Trek to Ulleri (2070m) – 5/6 hours

On this day, you will drive from Pokhara to Nayapul by private vehicle, a small village located at the starting point of the Khopra Trek. From there, you will begin your trek to Ulleri, a charming village located at an altitude of 2,070 meters. The trek takes around 5-6 hours and offers beautiful views of the surrounding landscape. Along the way, you will pass through lush forests, terraced fields, and charming villages. You will stay in a guesthouse or teahouse in Ulleri for the night.

Day 5: Trek to Ghorepani (2860m) from Ulleri (2070m) -6/7 hours

On day 5 of the trek, you will continue your journey from Ulleri to Ghorepani, a village located at an altitude of 2,860 meters. The trek takes around 6-7 hours and offers breathtaking views of the Annapurna mountain range. Along the way, you will pass through rhododendron forests and quaint villages, and have the opportunity to spot various species of flora and fauna. You will stay in a guesthouse or teahouse in Ghorepani for the night.

Day 6: Trek to Swanta (2200m) from Ghorepani (2860)

On day 6 of the trek, Early in the morning, you will hike to Poonhill (3210m) to catch a sunrise view with a stunning range of Annapurna including Annapurna South (7219m), Fishtail(6997m), Hiunchuli (6441m), Nilgiri, Annapurna I (8091m), Dhaulagiri (8167m) and many others peaks. Later, after breakfast in the hotel, you will leave Ghorepani and head towards Swanta, a small village located at an altitude of 2,200 meters. The trek takes around 6-7 hours and offers stunning views of the Annapurna mountain range. Along the way, you will pass through terraced fields and charming villages, and have the opportunity to interact with the local people and learn about their way of life. You will stay in a guesthouse or teahouse in Swanta for the night.

Day 7: Trek to Dhan Kharka (Chistibang) from Swanta

On this day of the trek, you will leave Swanta and make your way to Dhan Kharka, also known as Chistibang, a small village located at an altitude of 3,300 meters. The trek takes around 6-7 hours and offers beautiful views of the surrounding landscape. Along the way, you will pass through rhododendron forests and charming villages, and have the opportunity to spot various species of flora and fauna. You will stay in a guesthouse or teahouse in Dhan Kharka for the night.

Day 8: Trek to Khopra Danda from Dhan Kharka

On this day of your trek, you will leave Dhan Kharka and make your way to Khopra Danda, a ridge located at an altitude of 3,660 meters. The trek takes around 5-6 hours and offers breathtaking views of the Annapurna mountain range. From the ridge, you can see Annapurna South, Annapurna I, and Dhaulagiri, as well as the far-off peaks of Mustang. You will stay in a guesthouse or teahouse on Khopra Danda for the night.

Day 9: Excursion to Khayer Lake

On the 9th day of your trek, you will have the opportunity to take an excursion to Khayer Lake, a high-altitude lake located at an altitude of 4,660 meters. Regarded as a sacred lake by Hindus and believed to offer the opportunity for rebirth as a holy person through bathing in its waters, the lake offers stunning views of the Himalayas and is a wonderful retreat. The excursion to Khayer Lake takes around 7-8 hours and involves passing through rhododendron forests, with the opportunity to spot various species of flora and fauna. After exploring the lake, you will return to Khopra Danda for the night.

Day 10: Trek to Bayeli from Khayer Lake

On day 10 of the trek, you will leave Khopra Danda and head towards Bayeli, a small village located at an altitude of 2,800 meters. The trek takes around 6-7 hours and offers beautiful views of the surrounding landscape. Along the way, you will pass through rhododendron forests and charming villages, and have the opportunity to interact with the local people and learn about their way of life. You will stay in a guesthouse or teahouse in Bayeli for the night.

Day 11: Trek to Tadapani from Bayeli

On day 11 of the trek, you will leave Bayeli and make your way to Tadapani, a small village located at an altitude of 2,600 meters. The trek takes around 6-7 hours and offers beautiful views of the surrounding landscape. Along the way, you will pass through rhododendron forests and charming villages, and have the opportunity to interact with the local people and learn about their way of life. You will stay in a guesthouse or teahouse in Tadapani for the night.

Day 12: Trek to Ghandruk from Tadapani

On day 12 of the trek, you will leave Tadapani and make your way to Ghandruk, a charming village located at an altitude of 2,040 meters. The trek takes around 4-5 hours and offers beautiful views of the surrounding landscape. Ghandruk is known for its traditional Gurung culture and handicrafts and offers the opportunity to learn more about the local way of life. You will stay in a guesthouse or teahouse in Ghandruk for the night.

Day 13: Trek to Nayapul and Drive back to Pokhara

On day 13 of the trek, you will leave Ghandruk and make your way to Nayapul, where you will end your trek. From there, you will take a private vehicle back to Pokhara, a scenic city located in the central region of Nepal. The journey takes around 4-5 hours and offers stunning views of the countryside and the Himalayan mountain range. Upon arriving in Pokhara, you will check into your hotel and rest for the night. The next day, you will either continue your journey or return to Kathmandu.

Day 14: Pokhara City Tour

On this day of your trek, you will have the opportunity to take a city tour of Pokhara, a scenic city located in the central region of Nepal. The tour includes a boat ride on Phewa Lake, a visit to Mahendra Cave, and a visit to David Falls. Phewa Lake is a popular tourist spot known for its stunning views and boating opportunities. Mahendra Cave is a natural cave filled with stalactites and stalagmites, and David Falls is a beautiful waterfall located near the cave. After the tour, you will return to your hotel in Pokhara for the night.

Day 15: Drive to Kathmandu from Pokhara by Tourist Bus (Flight optional)

On day 15 of the trek, you will take a tourist bus or a flight from Pokhara to Kathmandu, the capital city of Nepal. The journey takes around 6-7 hours by bus or around 25 minutes by flight and offers stunning views of the countryside and the Himalayan mountain range. Upon arriving in Kathmandu, you will check into your hotel and rest for the night. The next day, you will either continue your journey or return home.

Day 16: Departure

On day 16 of the trek, it is time to say goodbye to Nepal. The staff at the adventure club will help you with any last-minute arrangements and transfer you to the airport for your flight home. Thank you for choosing the Khopra Trek and we hope you had a wonderful time exploring the beautiful Annapurna region of Nepal. We hope to see you again on your next adventure!

URL: https://adventureclub.com.np