Day 2: Kathmandu City Tour

Today, you will embark on a guided city tour of Kathmandu. You will start the day by visiting the Swayambhunath Temple, also known as the "Monkey Temple," which is a UNESCO World Heritage site. This ancient Buddhist temple is perched on a hill overlooking Kathmandu and is home to a large stupa, shrines, and a variety of temples.

Next, you will visit Patan Durbar Square, which is a historic palace complex that is home to a number of ancient temples and shrines. Here, you can admire the intricate carvings and architecture of the temples and learn about the history of the city.

You will then have the option to visit either the Pashupatinath Temple or the Boudhanath Stupa. The Pashupatinath Temple is a Hindu temple dedicated to Lord Shiva and is a popular site for Hindu pilgrims. The Boudhanath Stupa is a large Buddhist stupa that is one of the largest in Nepal and is a UNESCO World Heritage site. You can choose to visit one of these sites, depending on your interests.

After the city tour, you will return to your hotel for the night and prepare for the next day of your trip.

Day 3: Drive to Pokhara from Kathmandu by Tourist Bus

Start your journey to Pokhara by taking a tourist bus from Kathmandu. The bus ride will take approximately 7-8 hours, depending on traffic and road conditions. Along the way, you will pass through stunning mountain scenery and rural villages, offering a glimpse into the local way of life. You will arrive in Pokhara in the evening and will have the rest of the evening to relax and explore the city at your leisure. You can recheck preparation for your Mohare Danda Trek and can do the shopping if anything is found left. Overnight in Pokhara.

Note: Ensure that you have finished eating breakfast before the bus departure time, or request a packed breakfast if necessary.

Day 4: Drive to Galeshwar (1170m) and trek to Bans Kharka (1450). 3-4 hours

Today, you will drive from Pokhara to the small village of Galeshwar by private vehicle, which is located at an altitude of 1170 meters. You will begin your trek to Bans Kharka from Galeshwar, which is a small settlement located at an altitude of 1450 meters. The trek will take approximately 3-4 hours and will take you through lush forests and terraced fields. Along the way, you will have the opportunity to observe local flora and fauna and get a taste of rural life in Nepal. Upon arriving at Bans Kharka, you will stay in your accommodation. Overnight in Bans Kharka.

You will say goodbye to beautiful Mountain Annapurna South and Hiunchuli, but Annapurna II will be waving to you until Pokhara.

Upon arriving at Tipling, you will take a vehicle for the drive back to Pokhara. The drive will take approximately 4-5 hours, depending on the traffic and road conditions. On arriving in Pokhara, you will check into your hotel and have the rest of the evening to relax and explore the city at your leisure.

Day 9: Pokhara city Tour

Today, on a city tour of Pokhara, you might visit some of the following sites:

Phewa Lake: This is the largest lake in Pokhara and is a popular spot for boating, fishing, and picnics. You can hire a boat to take you around the lake or visit the Tal Barahi Temple, located on an island in the middle of the lake.

World Peace Pagoda: This is a large white stupa located on a hill overlooking the city, offering panoramic views of the surrounding mountains and valleys. You can take a short hike up to the pagoda or take a taxi.

Vindhya Basini Temple: This is a popular Hindu temple located in the center of Pokhara, dedicated to the goddess Durga. It is a peaceful place to visit and offers views of the surrounding mountains.

International Mountain Museum: This museum is dedicated to the history and culture of mountain climbing in Nepal and is located near the Pokhara Airport. It is a great place to learn about the history of mountaineering in the region and see displays of climbing equipment and other artifacts.

There are many other things to do and see in Pokhara, including visiting the local markets, taking a paragliding or ultralight flight, or visiting the Gurkha Memorial Museum. It's a great place to relax and explore after completing the Mohare Danda Trek.

Day 10: Drive to Kathmandu from Pokhara by Tourist Bus

Today, you will return to Kathmandu from Pokhara by Tourist Bus. You will take a private vehicle to reach the Tourist Bus station from your stayed hotel. Upon your arrival at the bus station, you will switch to the Tourist Bus to get back to Kathmandu. The bus journey will take approximately 5-6 hours.

If you want to avoid the traffic, you can take a flight from Pokhara to Kathmandu, which only takes  $\frac{1}{2}$  an hour.

Overnight in Kathmandu.

Day 11: Departure

Today, Adventure Club officials will pick you up from the hotel and drop you off at the airport for your departure. It's time to say bye-bye and hope to see you again soon.
